The Editorial Board of Evidence Based Library and Information Practice is pleased to announce the development of an annual award for the best original research article published in its journal.

The Editorial Board will select the winning article from original manuscripts published in each volume. A cash award will be presented to the winning author(s) following the publication of the final issue per volume and will be announced in the first issue of the following year. More information will be forthcoming on the journal's website <<http://ejournals.library.ualberta.ca/index.php/EBLip>>.
